I used the Custom Remove feature of the Apple Internet Connection Kit (AICK) installer to remove AICK, however, it did not work. What files do I have to put into the Trash to remove AICK?

* Installed by the AICK installer in this location. Placed in control panels on first successful connection made by the Internet Dialer.

 The Preferences folder items, which could be used by other applications, may not need to be removed. This is especially true if you plan on reinstalling AICK.

 This is a shared library file and may provide additional AppleScript support for other installed PowerPC applications. Removing it could result in an error dialog and the need to reinstall the application which needs this shared library.
