AutoCAD Rel 10: Macintosh IIci and IIx Require Version C5b

This article last reviewed: 13 November 1990

There are several versions of AutoCAD Rel 10. The version that was shipping before the announcement of the Macintosh IIci was Version C5. With the release of the Macintosh IIci, certain incompatibilities appeared. Autodesk released Version C5b to accommodate the Macintosh IIci and Macintosh IIx. Contact your AutoCAD distributor for the new version. Copyright 1990 Apple Computer, Inc.
