Jazz: Using the numeric keypad within the Worksheet

The down arrow key on the numeric keypad will move the cell selection to the right when entering data in the Jazz worksheet. The return key on the main keypad will move the cursor down. Users entering a column of numbers can highlight the column heading (A, B, D, ect.) this will select the entire column. The down arrow will be forced to operate correctly when the entire column is highlighted. In the Jazz database the down arrow key on the numeric keypad will move the cell selection down.
